

I feel the age 60 requirement should be raised. The vast majority of objections to raising the age deal with seniority issues. The overwhelming majority of pilots I see everyday can work past 60. It would help the airlines as well as short term relief for the military and their retention. I am a 43 year old Captain with American Airlines. Thank you. Ron Emerson.